

GLOSSOP

Edwina Laidlaw

Senior Associate

Edwina Laidlaw is a Senior Associate at Glossop Town Planning.

Edwina is a highly experienced planner, with experience in the public and private sector.

She has been working in the Victorian planning industry since 2004, and has experience in statutory and strategic town planning, across a range of sectors including residential, commercial, institutional and rural.

Edwina is experienced in managing complex projects through the permit application stage and VCAT process (including in VCAT advocacy). She has excellent attention to detail, strong written and verbal communication skills and a thorough understanding of the planning issues facing Melbourne today.

Recent key projects

Strategic Planning

- Assisted in the preparation of planning evidence on behalf of Kingston City Council relating to its new Housing and Neighbourhood Character Study.
- Peer reviewed the Preston Market proposed planning controls and assisted in the preparation of evidence.
- Managed the Toorak Road Level Crossing Removal Project for Stonnington City Council.

Professional Skills & Expertise

URBAN REDEVELOPMENT AND RENEWAL

DEVELOPMENT FACILITATION AND FEASIBILITY ANALYSIS

STATUTORY ASSESSMENT

VCAT ADVOCACY

PROJECT MANAGEMENT

PLANNING ADVISORY SERVICES

STRATEGIC PLANNING

Development Approvals

- Performed as Planning Officer for Stonnington City Council during its assessment of a substantial redevelopment of the Jam Factory site in South Yarra.
- Successfully gained planning permits for a range of residential, commercial, industrial, rural and large institutional uses across Victoria.

GLOSSOP

- VCAT advocacy for both Councils and private developer

Education

- Bachelor of Arts, University of Melbourne
- Masters of Social Science (Planning and Environment), RMIT

Professional Affiliation

Victorian Planning and Environmental Law Association

